CONGREGATION OHAV SHALOM TO HOST 9th ANNUAL ALBANY JEWISH COMMUNITY FLORIDA REUNION

ALBANY, NEW YORK – On Sunday, January 15, 2012, Rabbi Dan Ornstein of Congregation Ohav Shalom will join with the Albany Jewish Community in Florida at the 9th annual Winter Reunion. The event takes place at 5 pm at Temple Emeth, 5780 West Atlantic Avenue (East of Jog Rd.) in Delray Beach. Whether you're a Florida resident, a snowbird or just visiting briefly, we look forward to seeing you there.

A strictly kosher gourmet meal will be provided by Diamond Caterers for a cost of $25 per person. Payment must be sent by January 4 to Suzanne Rosenblum, 7310 Ashford Place, #308, Delray Beach, Florida 33446. Please indicate your meal choice (Chicken Marsala, Brisket, Filet of Salmon or Vegetable Cutlet.) Your check is your reservation.

“This Reunion is a great way for Albany Jewish Community members who are wintering in Florida or who have moved there permanently to reconnect both socially and spiritually,” said Rabbi Ornstein. “It’s also an opportunity for me to visit with our congregants and friends and update them on what’s happening at Ohav Shalom, including the launch of our exciting Torah Writing Campaign.”

Ohav’s reunion is made possible through the generous support of Mark and Jane Levine of Levine Memorial Chapel.
