Congregation Ohav Shalom

KADIMA 2010 - 2011

Kadima is a youth organization under the auspices of United Synagogue. Ohav Shalom's Kadima is open to ALL Jewish middle schoolers (grades 6-8). The group generally meets one time per month for many different types of functions, including sports events, movies, hay rides, Jewish holiday programs, and other creative activities. This organization is run by Ohav Shalom's Kadima Advisor Dan Scher. The group also has the opportunity to attend weekend Kadima Kallahs with fellow Kadimaniks from across the Region. Annual Membership fee is $25.

USY 2010- 2011

USY (United Synagogue Youth) is Ohav Shalom's high school youth group, under the auspices of United Synagogue of Conservative Judaism and Tzafon Region. Ohav Shalom's USY chapter, "Ruach Tzafon," meets every other Monday night from 7 - 8:00 pm. Supplemental programs vary, with some past events including an apple pie bake sale, a chocolate Seder, Israeli culture night, social action projects, movies, and our excellent "Rap with the Rabbis" learning nights. Ohav USYers also participate in weekend conventions and a variety of USY summer programs. All high school students are encouraged to join. Please don't hesitate to contact Ohav USY advisor: Joy Newman, joyzee@hotmail.com, 585-314-3707. Annual membership fee is $42.
