Yes! I want to honor the Torah and support Congregation Ohav Shalom!

Please check off your contribution level on the reverse side.

(Optional) — For wording in the Torah Commemoration Book and on the certificate:

Please include your name as you wish it to appear and list the individual(s), celebration or life cycle event in honor of or in memory of which you are making your contribution. Though we welcome your commemorations in honor and/or in memory of loved ones and life cycle events, as part of our Torah Writing Celebration, the wording of any commemoration may need to be edited for length and/or appropriateness.

Example: In memory of my parents, Dora and Sam Levy
John and Joan Levy

(Optional) — Please list the specific book of the Torah, portion, maftir portion, aliyah of a special portion, verse, name, word, or letter for which you are making your contribution.

Recognition for your Donation

- All gifts will be acknowledged with a certificate that indicates what part of the Torah you helped underwrite and a listing in the Torah Commemoration Book which will be on display in the synagogue.
- Gifts of $180 and above will also be acknowledged with a framed certificate.
- Gifts of $3,600 and above will also be acknowledged on a public plaque. Donors will be listed in sections—i.e., Torah, Book, Readings/Themes, Parshiot—but names will not be listed by which book, reading or Parsha they helped underwrite.
- Please note that no one will be given exclusivity in underwriting any portion of the Torah.
