

Congregation Ohav Shalom

KADIMA (2009 2010)

Kadima is a youth organization under the auspices of United Synagogue. Ohav Shalom's Kadima is open to ALL Jewish middle schoolers (grades 6-8). The group generally meets on either Sundays or Saturday nights for many different types of functions, including sports events, movies, hay rides, Jewish holiday programs, and other creative activities. This organization is run by Ohav Shalom's Kadima Advisor Dan Scher. The group also has the opportunity to attend weekend Kadima Kallahs with fellow Kadimaniks from across the Region. Annual Membership fee is $25.

Student's Name: _____
 Address: _____

 Phone Number: (H) _____ (C) _____
 Parents' Names: _____
 Parents' E-mail: _____
 Kadimanik's Email: _____
 Kadimanik's Grade: _____

Include membership fee payment in High Holy Days Packet payment form.

USY (2009- 2010)

USY (United Synagogue Youth) is the high school youth group under the auspices of United Synagogue. Ohav Shalom's USY chapter, "Ruach Tzafon," meets generally every Tuesday night from 7 - 8:00 pm. This year the chapter board and advisor, Joy Newman, are very excited to welcome any and all 9-12th graders to our chapter. Programs include an apple pie bake, a chocolate Seder, Israeli out-of-ice cream, cooking, movies, arts and crafts projects, tzedakah programs, and the award winning "Rap with Rabbi Dan" series. Weekend conventions are an exciting part of USY as are the many different summer programs offered to USYers through United Synagogue. All high school students are encouraged to join. Annual membership fee is $42. (For joint membership with Temple Israel add $14, for a total of $56.)

Student's Name: _____
 Address: _____

 Phone Number: _____
 E-mail Address: _____
 Parents' Names: _____
 Parents' E-mail: _____

The next time Albany hosts a convention, I would be willing to help ____ house? ____ cook?

Include membership fee payment in High Holy Days Packet payment form.